Brief Report of event:

The Seminar on “Importance of Communication skill for successful Professional Career and Social Life” was organised by Department of Computer Engineering to address the need of communication and soft skills for engineering professionals.

Objective:

The primary objectives of the seminar were:

- To boost professional development
- To strengthen interpersonal skills
- To increase communication ability
- To cultivate the ability to solve problems

The seminar was commenced with a welcome note and introduction by the Head of the Department Dr. G.M. Bhandari. Dr. T.K. Nagaraj, the principal, then gave a brief speech. According to him, engineering students need to have strong communication skills in order to communicate with stakeholders, clients, and colleagues when they enter the job. Engineers that communicate well are able to work together as a team, communicate technical information accurately, and make strong presentations of their ideas. It is also essential for problem-solving, client relations, and project management.

Vision: “To satisfy aspiration of youth force, who wants to lead the nation towards prosperity through techno-economic development”

Mission: “To provide, nurture and maintain an environment of high academic excellence, research and entrepreneurship for all aspiring students, which will prepare them to face global challenges maintaining high ethical and moral standards”

He mentioned that engineering students may network with professionals in the field, form relationships, and participate in community outreach initiatives by having effective communication skills. Engineers with strong communication skills can convey their ideas clearly, listen intently to others, and establish a connection with a variety of people.

All things considered, engineering students must master effective communication skills if they are to excel in both their social and professional life. Engineering students can boost their employability, progress in their professions, and make a meaningful social contribution by honing their communication skills.

Seminar concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Miss. Ritika Dhotre, acknowledging the contribution of all the participants and organizers.
